

2012 Summer Holiday Programs

in Tokyo, Japan

Kudan Institute of Japanese Language & Culture

Welcome to Kudan !!

Since 1988, we have been providing many foreign students with the opportunity to learn the Japanese language and culture.

- ◆ A "Homestay" is the best way to learn Japanese and improve your level quickly!
- ◆ Feel the diversity! Students from more than 20 countries will be your classmates!
- ◆ The school is located in the easily accessible heart of Tokyo. A 15-minute train ride will take you either in Shibuya, Shinjuku or Ikebukuro. It's convenient to hang around after school.
- ◆ We have English and Korean speaking staff so that we can provide counseling and assistance with both academic and personal matters.

Come and enjoy the school life at Kudan!

Homestay Q&A

Q. What is Homestay?

A. It is to stay with a Japanese family giving you a chance to learn Japanese culture and customs first-hand.

Q. Will my Japanese skill improve if I stay with a host family?

A. Yes, your Japanese skill will improve. During your stay at home, you will have many chances to use Japanese. Also, your host family can help you with your studies.

Q. I cannot speak Japanese well, I am very afraid of trying homestay. Is it okay?

A. Please do not worry about it! All host families understand that not all students can speak Japanese well at first. Besides this, the host families will be able to adapt to students' needs.

Q. Have all host families hosted students before?

A. Most families have hosted students before. A new host family will always take an orientation with us.

Q. What is your daily schedule?

A.

	Class A.M.	Class P.M.	What is conversation with host family in Japanese?
6:00	Wake up		「What is your schedule today?」 「Where are you going?」 「What time will you come home?」 「It's fine today, isn't it?」

Q. How long does it take to go to school from your host family's house?

A. It depends on each host family's location but it'll be about 40 - 90 minutes each way.

Q. Where are the host family's houses located?

A. They are located in the Tokyo Area; Kanagawa, Chiba, and Saitama Prefectures.

Q. Are there any host families near school?

A. Most families are located in the suburban area of Tokyo. Our school is located in central Tokyo. This means there are many office buildings, but no houses. Generally speaking, it normally takes about 60-90 minutes for students or workers to go to school or work in Tokyo.

Q. How much is the fare from/to the school?

A. It is about ¥600-¥1000 (one way). It depends on family's location from the school.

It is usually ¥16,000 - ¥30,000 per month for a train or bus pass.

Q. What are the rooms at the house like?

A. In general, there are "Japanese style rooms" and "Western style rooms" in a Japanese house.

"Japanese style room" . . . "Tatami"(this is Japanese traditional floor) is on the floor.

"Western style room" . . . There is carpet on the floor, or no carpet on it.

Q. Is there a bed in the bedroom?

A. Usually, there is a bed that you can sleep on.

In a "Japanese style room", you sleep on a "FUTON"(this is a traditional Japanese bed.) on "TATAMI".

However, some families have a bed that you can sleep on in a "Japanese style room".

Q. Is there a shower at the house?

A. Yes, most families have a shower in the bathroom (some have NO shower, only a bathroom). Showers are usually taken at night in Japan. Therefore, if you wish to take a shower in the morning, you should ask the host family in advance.

Q. What kinds of dishes will be served at the host families?

A. You can eat 2 meals (breakfast and dinner) on weekdays, and 3 meals with lunch on weekends.

Breakfast . . . Western style---Bread, coffee, tea, eggs, fruit, yogurt etc.

Japanese style---Steamed rice, miso soup, broiled fish, and Japanese pickles etc.

Lunch . . . Buck-wheat noodles, Chinese noodles, Hamburgers, Curry rice etc..., around our school

Dinner . . . Spaghetti, Curry rice, Boiled & Broiled fishes, Vegetable salad, Vinegary dishes etc...

Q. What is the typical structure of a host family?

A. There are various types of families. For example,

Mother, father, children (Elementary, junior high school, high school, and College students)

Mother, father, children-(age 0 ~ 5 years old)

Mother and father

Mother and children

Grandmother, grandfather, mother, father, and children

Q. Will I have an Internet access?

A. It depends on your family. Some have no computer. Some families have a computer and allow you to use it, but some will not. However, you may use the computers at our institute.

Q. Who is eligible to be a host student?

A. The host families are generous people who look forward to welcoming many students from all countries.

Some family members are studying English, Chinese, Korean or other languages. Some have experience that they used to visit many countries as their hobbies.

Summer Course 1,2,3

Present Yukata (Summer Kimono) for all participants!!

This is the most popular course ever! Many students have been studied in this course!!

The purpose of this course is to provide students with many practices of daily conversation for their spoken & listening skills to be brushed up! In the lessons, you will learn a lot of situational conversation that you may come across during your stay in Japan. This is the ideal course for the student like you who would like to learn Japanese in the relatively short period of time. In this course, you will also experience authentic Japanese culture, tradition, and society through the various activities provided. Thus, you can enjoy your language study as well as sightseeing in Japan!! For your accommodation, we arrange "Homestay". Living with a Japanese family makes it possible for you to experience "REAL JAPAN", and we believe your Japanese communication skills will improve dramatically! All our "warm-hearted" host families are carefully selected by our standard and they are looking forward to meeting you!! Now, let's enjoy your exciting life in Japan!
